

Lehi Santa Claus Parade

Help me remember the Lehi Santa Claus parade. I remember being in the Lehi Jr. High band playing the clarinet, having to march(?) in this parade and it being cold! Traditional lights were strung from pole to pole on Main Street with a white star strung up across the the corners of Main Street and 100 West. State Bank of Lehi was on one corner, Ellison Cleaners on one, Swede Adams' Christmas tree lot on one, and was it still Julian's Drug store or Geraldine's on the other corner? Santa came in on a fire truck, then settled in at the Lehi Armory to listen to Christmas wishes. Everyone was given a small brown paper sack with an orange, peanuts and a candy cane in it. I'm thinking the parade was at night but Santa was at the armory during the day?

Dana Nelson Grahmn

The parade was in the day. I have pictures as I marched also. Then Santa went in they armory at the end of the parade and gave out the bags

Ah, the innocent age. The age of frozen toes, blankets of silent powder, peppermint candy canes, pine pitch crackling in the fireplace, tongues stuck to flag poles. And Santa riding a fire truck. Lehi was about as Norman-Rockwellian as you could get.

Scott Lamb

Oh yes. i remember my valves on my trumpet sticking, it was so cold.

Marcey Neel Wyatt

I remember the parade being in Saturday morning and then following The parade to the armory to meet Santa.

Stacey Haws

I do remember the brown bags.
